

The Presence Of The King

Let The Son Rise

King of kings, Lord of lords
Who compares to You?
Every breath, You give
Everything that lives
Has life because of You

But in the shadows of rebellion
We're slaves to hate, fear and desire
Unleash your Spirit like a blaze
Your rays like refining fire

There's a shaking in the ground the closer to dawn we get
Silence falls
As all creation holds it's breath
Let the Son rise, Let the Son rise
Let every hidden thing
Be drawn into the light
Let the Son rise, Let the Son rise
In the name of Jesus Christ
I break break break the night
Break break break the night

Prince of peace, soon-coming King
The seeds of light You sowed
Lit the way to this place
At the foot of Your throne
Here hope is indestructible
On our knees in front of You
We're a nation in waiting
For the miracle You can do

We lay down our homes and land
Hand over all our claims and keys
Lord have Your way in us, do as You please

Today is the day a people is born
Izwe LizeIwe

This is the moment a nation is formed
Isizwe Sakhiwe

In You is the freedom we've been fighting for Uyi Nkululeko Yethu

In You is the peace, we can't get through war
Ungu Kuthula Kwethu

May our leaders kneel before You
May we fear Your name
Wash the curse from our land
Never to be cursed again!
